

MANSFELD MAGNET MIDDLE SCHOOL

Family Engagement

We did our usual “Please tell us something positive about your child today”. Even though there were the same number of parents as our last meeting, one parent was new, and we had interesting suggestions about engaging more parents in the future. For instance, we again discussed having a “social evening” just for parents. The new parent suggested we have a session on use of technology and possibly one session about weapons and safety. We are talking after the holidays because so many families are busy at this time of the year.

Thank you for being connected and supportive of your child in Middle School.

Those in attendance: Jesus Dias, Alicia Allen (parent-absent), Amy Barron-Gafford (parent), Kirsta Mosconi, Karla Martinez, and Carolyn Mosconi.
